

The NEW YORK Sun

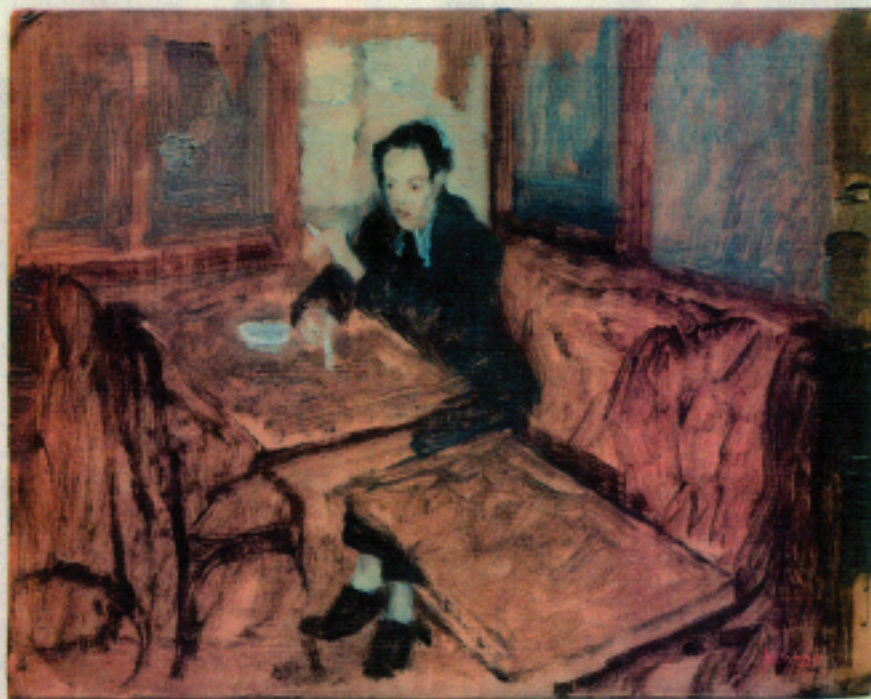

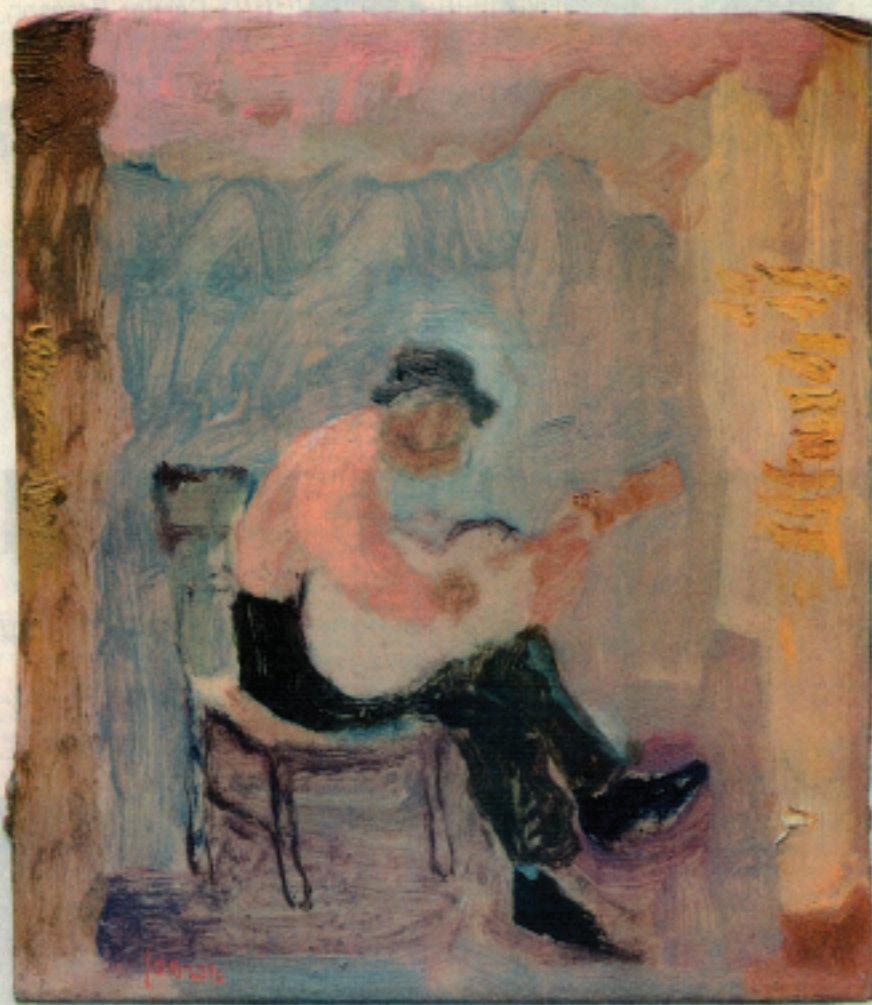

PAGE 12

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2006

THE NEW YORK SUN

CALENDAR

S	M	T	W	T	F	S
15	16	17	18	12	13	14

ART & MUSIC

STORIES AND SONG Painter Anthony Dubovsky gives an evening presentation of songs and stories set in the midst of his exhibit of paintings at CUE Art Foundation. The performance on guitar and concertina is accompanied by stories related to the works on view. Christopher Brown curated the exhibit. All but one of the works is being exhibited for the first time, including a suite of recent paintings inspired by the teachings of the Chinese philosopher Chuang Tzu (c. 300 B.C.E.) and a group of 80 small-scale paintings on cardboard. Clockwise from above, "Beulah Land (for Mississippi John Hurt)" (2000), "A Hungarian in Paris" (2001), and "My First Emperor" (2001). Event: Tonight, 6-8 p.m., free. Exhibit: Through Saturday, January 28, Tuesday-Saturday, 10 a.m.-6 p.m., CUE Art Foundation, 511 W. 25th St., between Tenth and Eleventh avenues, 212-206-2583, free.

BENEFIT

MERRY MARDI GRAS The Preservation Resource Center of New Orleans presents "Heart and Soul," a Mardi Gras celebration that benefits the rebuilding of New Orleans. The benefit cocktail party's proceeds go to the organization's homeowner assistance and neighborhood recovery fund. Grace and Sandy Kaynor and Susan and Jeff Moore serve as chairmen of the event. Doug Brickley, Kitty Carlisle Hart, Nancy Lemann, Julia Reed, and Bryan Batt are honorary chairmen. Tonight, 7-9:30 p.m., Museum of the City of New York, 1220 Fifth Ave. at 103rd Street, 914-235-1490 ext. 17, $250-$5,000 general, $125 under age 35.

through a workshop on Guatemalan worry dolls. They discover the clothing, language, and customs of Guatemalan culture and make their own tiny worry dolls to take home. The event is intended for children age 6 and older. Today, 3-4 p.m., Brooklyn Children's Museum, 145 Brooklyn Ave. at St. Mark's Avenue, 718-725-4490, free with museum admission, $4 general, members free.

BOOKMAKING FOR CHILDREN Nancy Lowber of the Center for Book Arts conducts a workshop in constructing a Japanese stab sewn book. Afterward, participants have time to put their own words and drawings in the book. The workshop is for children ages 8 to 13 and their adult companions. Saturday, manco "Beyond the Rocks" (1922), starring Gloria Swanson and Rudolph Valentino, has its New York premiere. Tomorrow through Thursday, January 19, 7 and 9 p.m., Anthology Film Archives, 32 Second Ave. at 2nd Street, 212-605-5181, $8 general, $5 seniors and students, $5 members.

JEWISH FILMS The 15th annual New York Jewish Film Festival, a collaboration between the Jewish Museum and the Film Society of Lincoln Center, kicks off tomorrow. Selections include films from Australia, France, Germany, Israel, Mexico, Russia, and beyond. Highlights include Dominic Harari and Teresa de Pelegrini's "Only Human," a Spanish screwball comedy

CUE ART FOUNDATION